We ship COOLED SEMEN on Monday, Wednesday & Friday ONLY

We ship FROZEN SEMEN on Tuesday and Thursday ONLY

We ALWAYS want to ship to you when your mare is a breeder. THEREFORE, I MUST know BY 6PM EST the day BEFORE a shipping day. IF YOU HAVE TO HAVE YOUR MARE RECHECKED (by 7AM EST) ON A BREEDING DAY, she MUST be put on our "tentative" list so we can possibly save that stallion until last to collect—mares that are on the "tentative list" MUST confirm/cancel by 7:00 am EST on a shipping day so that shipments that need to fly out may get out as early as possible. We ship on a first CONFIRMED-first served basis. We've got some very popular, busy stallions and while we always want to ship two doses, per our contract, one concentrated dose will be shipped if it's available. We cannot guarantee we will have semen available if you have called in late. We will not collect the stallion a second time the same day after a Stallion has been collected, extended, packaged in order to preserve semen integrity for all mares. We start collecting as early as ~6AM EST, therefore, we MUST know the day prior to a shipping day if you will need a shipment for your mare.

CANADIAN BREEDERS MUST PLACE ORDER
TWO DAYS PRIOR TO A SHIPPING DAY
